Jeanne Fogle : A Neighborhood Guide to Washington, D.C.'s Hidden History (History Guide) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised A Neighborhood Guide to Washington, D.C.'s Hidden History (History Guide):

1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Informative and grippingBy CustomerThis book shows the behind-the-scene look at Washington DC neighborhoods. Brief histories of significant buildings, memorials and parks written in a style that makes you want to keep reading. No boring history lessons here. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Four Stars By Brian Very thorough cataloguing of DC's best architecture. 1 of 3 people found the following review helpful. Awesome history By T. Cochran This is an excellent look into the lesser known stories from Washington's past. I thoroughly enjoyed this book and breezed through the whole thing in two hours. An easy read and you'll find yourself full of great stories by the end.

- Get off the National Mall and enjoy nine walking and driving tours of Washington, D.C.'s historic neighborhoods.- Discover the hidden history of the nations capital with tales of political intrigue, scandal, romance and tragedy.- Experience the overlooked architectural and cultural treasures in such neighborhoods as Georgetown, Dupont Circle, Adams Morgan and Mount Vernon Square. Owner of A Tour de Force Jeanne Fogle leads her readers through the hidden sites and history of Washington, D.C.'s neighborhoods. Charming sketches by Edward Fogle and vintage photographs accompany each tour, casting a new light on the city. Visitors and local alike will be surprised and delighted by the discoveries that can be made beyond the monuments.

About the Author Jeanne Fogle is a local Washington, D.C. historian, who was born in the Nations Capital, where her family has lived for more than 150 years. She established her company, A Tour de Force Guided Tours / A Tour de Force Publications in 1984. As a D.C.-licensed Certified Master Tour Guide and lecturer, she offers an unusual and personal look into Washington's past and present, through her tours and illustrated slide lectures. Ms. Fogle serves as an adjunct professor of Washington History and Regional Tour Guiding and Tour Managing at Northern Virginia Community College. She has authored three books on Washington, D.C.'s social and architectural history: Two Hundred Years, Stories of the Nations Capital, Proximity to Power: Neighbors to the Presidents near Lafayette Square, and Washington D.C.: a Pictorial Celebration. The first two of her books, and her Washington, D.C. Note-Cards are illustrated by her brother, artist Edward Fogle.
