Clarinda Harriss : Air Travel before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Air Travel:

Air Travel consists of 95 pages of poetry on subjects ranging from a Marine's death by AIDS and other modern/urban events through confrontation of personal ghosts to passionate, sexy, grown-up love poems. Air Travel reflects a mature and perceptive consciousness: knowing, insightful. It is sometimes a poetic memoir, sometimes a wry objective look at human foibles (her own included). . .celebrating, with memories of life, those who have gone. -- Jessie Lendennie, Managing Director, Salmon Publishing, Ireland Harriss fourth poetry collection reflects a vigorous life of the mind, body and spirit, as well as a lively tension between freedom and formalism in craft, its voice as poignant and pointed, funny and fierce as ever.

About the AuthorClarinda Harriss is a professor of English at Towson University.
