Padre Jose de Jesus Aguilar : Al encuentro de lo sagrado (Spanish Edition) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Al encuentro de lo sagrado (Spanish Edition):

Nazareth. Bethlehem. Canaan. The Jordan River. Jerusalem. The Mount of Olives. The Church of Mary Magdalene. Rome and the Vatican. St. Peter's Basilica. The sanctuaries of the heart in different countries and continents are the houses of God, Mary, and of men, where the personal encounter with divinity is more immediate and direct. For that, it is not important the physical route, more so the spiritual, which at times occurs without knowledge. With this understanding and the singular way it is characterized, Father Jos de Jess has prepared an invaluable guide for the pilgrim with actual and precise information regarding the holiest of sites throughout the world. The reader will find in these pages a complete mosaic of historical and biblical references, practical advice for those who want to visit the sanctuaries in Mexico, Europe, and the Holy Land, and an enlightening panorama of Rome and the Vatican.

About the AuthorThe childhood of Father Jos de Jess Aguilar can be characterized by a constant desire for improvement. He formed a part of the Amalia Hernandez Ballet troupe, participated in various television programs, worked as a clown and as a magician to pay for his seminary classes, and traveled as a laborer to the United States, where he worked at Dodger Stadium. After being ordained as a priest, he was sent to Rome to complete his preparation. He has written more than two hundred newspaper and magazine articles. He is the author of more than five hundred stories, which have validated his endeavors as an editor. Among his recent publications, El Camino del Amor (The Path of Love, 2008) and Pregntale a Padre Jos (Ask Father Jose, 2006) stand out, both published under the imprint of Diana of the Grupo Planeta. Since 2004 he has been responsible for radio and television for the Archbishop of Mexico, in which he is a constant participant on various radio stations.
