Graphic Arts Center, Alaska Northwest Publishing : Alaska Almanac: Facts about Alaska before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Alaska Almanac: Facts about Alaska:

The Alaska Almanac covers every Northern topic imaginable. From cabin fever and dog mushing to oil production and zip codes, you'll find the latest information on the 49th state and thousands of intriguing tidbits. For students, travelers, or anyone with a question about Alaska.

Packed into the 19th edition of this almanac are all the facts, figures and insights into the geography, history, and cultures of Alaska. Use this as a source book for facts, but don't miss its appeal as a leisure browsing read for any with a special interest in Alaskan history or culture. -- Midwest Book About the AuthorThe author, Carolyn, 45, lives in Surrey, very happily married to Rod and has two children, Samantha, 7 and Jamie 22. She was born in the middle of three sisters to loving parents, Bob and Maureen Lowe, in Bootle, Liverpool. Carolyn is a qualified Accounting Technician and NVQ Assessor and a member of MENSA. As will become clear from this autobiography, circumstances have dictated the direction of her life for the past few years. Ordinarily, however, she is a strong and fiesty lady with an extraordinary sense of humour. Her biggest loss of late has been the world of work for which she has a passion. Currently every ounce of her being goes toward her attempting to rebuild enough strength to reintegrate back into useful society life. This book has been written to help other people "down on their luck" see that there is a glimmer of hope, a chink of light, in the distance. Whilst still a little vulnerable, Carolyn believes she has regained enough strength to overcome adversity and to continue her life unscarred. Battle-weary and older but with her sense-of-humour intact.
