My only frustration was that I couldn't order all I needed at one time (it showed a really long shipping window), so I had to order them in smaller batches to get them in time. One batch was a little bent, but still usable. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Nicely illustrated. The grandchildren will love using this on ... By Cheryl Carper Nicely illustrated. The grandchildren will love using this on our excursions. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Good guide though By Walter Mecham I thought it was a bigger book. Good guide though.

The state marine mammal, the bowhead whale, is one of thousands of species of animals inhabiting the diverse ecosystems found throughout the Last Frontier State. This beautifully illustrated guide highlights over 140 familiar and unique species of mammals, birds, amphibians, fishes and seashore creatures and includes an ecoregion map featuring prominent wildlife-viewing areas. Laminated for durability, this lightweight, pocket-sized folding guide is an excellent source of portable information and ideal for field use by visitors and residents alike. Made in the USA.
