Glacier National Park and the Great Northern Railway became synonymous in the early 20th century. Original photographs, posters, menus, postcards, and other rare materials support this fascinating pictorial history of the creation and promotion of the park by Great Northern as railroad barons raced west and competed for precious territory to expand their empires.

Carol Guthrie's All Aboard for Glacier National Park (2004) captures the heady days of passenger rail travel and the park. --Malcolm R. Campbell
