ClaytonHello, Just wanted to let you know that I gave this book as a christmas gift to my Grandmother who by the way is 97. She worked at the Detroit Institute of Arts in the I believe Archives and traveled alot to Washington DC Smithsonian as part of her job. She now lives upnorth in northern Michigan in a nursing home, but misses Detroit and the Art Institute very much and talks about her days there alot. When she recieved the book she was delighted. After a week or so I asked her if she liked the book. "Oh Yes! I remember seeing many of these works of art and I am enjoying reading about them" "I had always wondered about some of the artists". "It is facinating reading about the paintings too". Although the printing is small she was still able to read it. I was glad to have given her part of her life back thru this book. She has shown it to other Art Lovers and they have enjoyed looking at it also.6 of 6 people found the following review helpful.
