James Randklev's intense, saturated, color landscape photography captures Florida's colorsboth brilliant and subtleand its many moods, historical buildings, seascapes and cityscapes. This compact trade paperback presents excellently reproduced images on high-quality glossy paper stock at an amazingly low price.

From the Inside FlapJames Randklev's intense, saturated landscape photography captures Florida's colors, both brilliant and subtle, and its many moods, historical buildings, seascapes and cityscapes.About the AuthorMaster landscape photographer James Randklev has photographed America for thirty years, primarily with a large-format camera that provides the rich images collected in this volume. His brilliant and sensitive work has made him one of the Sierra Clubs most published photographers. His color photographs have appeared in books, periodicals, calendars, and advertisingand they have been exhibited in shows in the United States and abroad. In 1997 he was the sole American chosen to exhibit in the International Exhibition of Nature Photography in Evian, France.
