Frank Nielsen : Franko's Dive Map of Maui before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Franko's Dive Map of Maui:

I have most of the maps that include: The Hawaiian Islands, Oahu Guide Map, Oahu Dive Map, Maui Guide Map, Maui Dive Map, Hawaii Guide Map, Kauai Guide Map and Kauai Dive Map. Six of the maps were available from .com with free shipping, but two had to be purchased from independent vendors on and charged a small shipping fee. For the few dollars I paid, it was well worth it to have a great map that folds up and takes little space in my suitcase. Once I get to a particular island, I take it with me to know where I'm going and where I've been. Bring along a Sharpie pen to mark the places you've been or want to return. The back side of the map has a blown up area of popular places, for example, Oahu has Waikiki Beach and the placement of hotels and landmarks. I highly recommend these maps for getting around the islands.

There is detailed info here on dive sites on Lanai, Molokini and even Molokai, but this guy skips all the shore dives on the actual island of Maui. Rename your map or update it with dive sites that are accessible on the island of Maui.

Recreational map for scuba divers, snorkelers, kayakers, hikers, bicyclists, boaters, surfers, tourists, and others who love Maui. Printed on waterproof, tear-resistant, permanently folded paper. Side 1 shows a map of Maui, with all the main dive/snorkel and surf spots. Legend includes highways, main roads, dirt roads, trails, points of interest. Side 2 shows an overview of Maui county, with all the main dive/snorkel and surf spots.

About the AuthorFrank Nielsen is a self-described "ocean nut" born in Bountiful, Utah. He learned to love watersports while a teenager, when his family was posted to Beirut. Later he earned a Bachelor of Science in Ocean Engineering and worked for the U.S. Navy until 2000, when he became a full-time cartographer and map publisher.
