I will be buying these for more trips in the future. love it!!!0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Love the bookBy Paul H FranklinLove the book. Well-written and authoritative, easily-thumbed for salient points and top tips. The author's familiarity with the area and consummate knowledge of the hotels, restaurants, shows, and attractions is evident in every page. Perhaps the best current Las Vegas guide available. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. A good book. Not as comprehensive as I would have ...By KA good book. Not as comprehensive as I would have liked but good to introduce the city to someone who's never been there. (I have but it filled me in on some new hot spots.)

Its not easy to keep up with the changes in Sin City. Thats why this guide is updated yearly by a savvy local who has the right sort of sense of humor for this city. Grace Bascos has devoted many years to chronicling this evolution in Vegas and seeking to capture its essence. How did she come to be a travel writer? "Too short to be a showgirl", she writes, "too bad at math to be a card dealer, I earn my keep in Vegas the next best possible way: as a freelance food and travel writer dedicated to all things Sin City. When I'm not eating, drinking, partying and relaxing through town for my craft, I write a weekly dining columnI am also a regular contributor to USA Today's Experience Las Vegas blog, as well as many other local and regional publications.This guide is updated yearly and comes in a large, easy-to-read font. It contains:- Exact pricing so theres never any guesses- A handy pull-out map, plus dozens of maps within- Opinionated advice on EVERYTHING from the raunchy to the gourmet.-16-page photo guide, with vibrant photographs, at the front of the book and black and white photos throughout

About the AuthorToo short to be a showgirl, too bad at math to be a card dealer, Grace Bascos has earned her keep in Las Vegas the next best possible way: as a freelance food and travel writer dedicated to all things Sin City. When she isn't eating, drinking, partying and relaxing through town for her craft, she occasionally leaves her pampered bubble to tour musical festivals around the world. Bascos writes a weekly dining column, Dishing with Grace, for Vegas Seven, and is the dining editor for Vegas/Rated. She is also a regular contributor to USA Today's Experience Las Vegas blog, as well as many other local and regional publications. She resides in Las Vegas, NV.
