By mom of three
LOVE IT!!!! This book was easy and a quick reference guide to go to. I have been in the valley of the sun for almost thirty years and I am the mother of three young children. It just seemed we kept going to the same places until I got this book. I am a member of north central parenting group and me and a bunch of friends all bought this book and refer to it often for our outings. Furthermore, when friends of mine with kids come in town it is my brag book, tour guide and they love it too. The Author did a fabulous job making it simple. And the illustrations are so sweet. obviously it is a book for families by a family. Buy it, reference it, love it. You will find yourself branching out to new places. thanks!!!
p.s. Where is the sequel?

Thank you, Michelle, for finally providing a comprehensive, easy to read source for Phoenix fun. As a mother of three children who has barely survived 5 summers without the book, I am looking forward to a much less stressful sizzling summer. For a local Mom, this is truly the answer. I am impressed with the way the book is laid out by activity, location, season, etc. Having locations and phone numbers makes finding additional information a breeze. I would certainly recommend this book for anyone residing in the area who knows there is a life beyond thier stucco walls!

We travel to the Phoenix area every year and wanted a book that listed the differrent Childrens activities in the area. We were specifically looking for information on Playgrounds and Parks and what they offer. We purchased the book "Out and About Seattle With Kids" and were very satisfied. But by comaprison this book is miserable. The type face is huge (designed for kids I guess, but seems to be more for filling up pages) and the details are minimal. A phone book would have been just as usefull. I hope someone else takes the time to write a better book.
