Inc. Western Writers of America : Pioneer Trails West before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Pioneer Trails West:

A collection of non-fiction covering the various trails that led to the great plains and mountains and valleys of the West. Some of the greatest writers of the American West have combined talents to produce a classic book of American wilderness trails. Nineteen chapters feature the old roads and trails that crisscrossed early America from the East Coast to the western shore.
