Portrait of Palm Springs is photographer Tom Brewster's lush portrayal of the area's stunning landscapes and cityscapes. In Brewster's 140 images taken over 25 years, you can see the desert beauty that surrounds this unusual community of movie stars and golfers---from the rugged mountains of Joshua Tree National Park to the curlew-dotted Salton Sea, from the dunes at the Coachella Valley Preserve to the green expanses of the area's numerous golf courses. Brewster captures the stark grandeur and vivid contrasts of this desert community: the native fan palms at Indian Canyons and the snow-covered Mount San Jacinto; the bronze statues of famous Palm Springs residents Sonny Bono and Lucille Ball; and the grape-laden vineyards of the Coachella Valley.

It is rare to find a person with a sensitive eye and the spirit and strength to capture the desert and mountain environments in and around Palm Springs. Tom's dedication to photographing this dynamic region is a gift. This book represents an artist of significance. The future will see us as lucky to have had him in our midst. --Frank Jones, associate publisher, Palm Springs Life Magazine This masterful collection of photographs entices viewers to explore the magical place that I call home, the Palm Springs desert region. I hope everyone will view this collection of stunning images with the same joy of discovery and awe that I felt while lingering on page after wonderful page. I have been a big fan of Tom Brewster's work for many years. This compilation of Tom's work captures the essence, spectacular majesty, and beauty of the desert and the people who live there. Enjoy the view! --Congresswoman Mary Bono, California's 45th Congressional District

Tom Brewster's Portrait of Palm Springs is a beautiful book, full of colorful, artistic images taken in just the right light. Panoramic landscapes, full-page images, and smaller details are laid out artfully. The city and vicinity are shown beautifully, from the art museum to celebrities to a camelback safari. Adjacent Joshua Tree National Park is handsomely illustrated, as are the Salton Sea, polo players, balloonists, and the Living Desert. --Lou Jacobs, Jr., photographer and author of several books, including Professional Children's Portrait Photography
