"Finally, a guidebook aimed at the forgotten canoeist: families, bird watchers, solo adventurers, seniors, and average human beings who don't need to run rapids or mount an expedition to enjoy their paddling experience." --Canoe Magazine "I read Quiet Water cover to cover. It's packed with delicious nuggets of lore and wisdom. The writing is lively and informal. The Appalachian Mountain Club has outdone itself." --Worcester Magazine "For avid canoeists who prefer calm lakes and rivers, this is a great book, one that I wish was available for every state. The locations described are so peaceful that you tend to forget that you are in one of the most populated regions of the country." --Travel Books From the Back CoverThis updated and expanded edition of AMC's popular Quiet Water guide offers paddlers of all ages and abilities adventure and enjoyment on the water.
