Kathy Kenley : Quiet Water New Jersey, 2nd: Canoe and Kayak Guide (AMC Quiet Water Series) before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Quiet Water New Jersey, 2nd: Canoe and Kayak Guide (AMC Quiet Water Series):

home but wonder why Carnegie Lake in Princeton is not listed. This is my afterwork-get-an-hour-on-the-water choice. Just stay out the way of the Princeton Rowing team when they're practicing. 2 of 10 people found the following review helpful. I shoulda just bought a map By D. B. Weitzman A more appropriate title should have been Still Waters..... as the author only deals with lakes and ponds, and not that many of them. More than just for the beginners this book is for the completely dumb that can't read a map. 5 of 5 people found the following review helpful. Don't leave home without it! By Handy Enough I bought Kathy Kenley's book as a novice paddler who needed guidance to explore the lakes of southern New Jersey. It has been everything I hoped it would be. The descriptions are right on, and the directions to access points are perfect. While I cannot personally speak for the accuracy of information north of Burlington County, I have personally used it for information on about half the listed lakes in the south, and have yet to be misdirected in any way. I expect it is equally valid and valuable up north. This is a "must have" for anyone wishing to enjoy the pleasures of canoeing or kayaking on lakes and bays in the Garden State.

This new edition of AMC's popular Quiet Water New Jersey is completely updated, featuring more than 50 quiet water tours of the state's most stunning paddling destinations.

"Ms. Kenley has done an outstanding job not only in describing the lakes but giving the reader an insight into the local wildlife and history. This guidebook is a welcome addition for those who paddle the state's waters."--Bill Bell, Owner, Bel Haven Canoe and Kayak
"It has opened up a whole new world for many of us who did not realize that so many wonderful lakes were within our reach."--Michael Kelly, President, South Jersey Wilderness Club
