From Rand McNally Company : Rand McNally San Diego Pop-Up Map before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Rand McNally San Diego Pop-Up Map:

0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. tiny maps try to cover too much By Jim The previous publisher of these popups had maps much easier to read. I have them for many cities and they're so clear and useful. This one was so frustrating that I gave up and bought another pocket map in San Diego. I only wanted the waterfront, downtown, and the Gaslamp Quarter. This one tries to cover the whole coastal area in teeny font and streetlines.

VanDam's patented San Diego DC Pop-Up maps all of DC's attractions, neighborhoods, museums, hotels, historic sites, and more all at an immensely legible scale complete with 3-D building illustrations. Each map unfolds to 12 times its original size, then refolds automatically when the covers are closed. Size open is 8.5" x 11" per section; 3.75" x 6" closed. Eminently clear information design allows users to read the map from three feet away. Includes detailed Downtown, Coronado, Gaslamp Quarter Tijuana maps plus a Southern California map and more. Complete street index makes navigating the city fun and easy.
